

Questions and answers - 9.9.2020.

QUESTION:

In the event of acceptance of the bid whose integral part is an overview of the basic conditions under which the bid is given (e.g. phase of the bankruptcy proceeding when the payments will be made, etc.), please confirm that there will be no activation of the bank guarantee if an insolvency plan, i.e. the structure of the transaction is not consistent with the conditions of the bidder set out in the bid.

ANSWER:

Pursuant to the Public Invitation, the guarantee will be activated in two cases, namely if the bidder withdraws from his bid within its validity period of the bid and if false information is submitted in terms of the evidence of eligibility